

Year 1 How did we used to live?

What I should already know

- How old I am.
- That my parents are older than me.
- That my grandparents are older than my parents.
- I might have brothers or sisters younger than me.
- That we are living in 2021.
- The past is things that have happened before now
- That I know who I am and what has come before

Vocabulary

after	later in time
before	at an earlier time
century	equal to one hundred years
now	at this time
present	at this time
past	at an earlier time

Important Facts about Victorian Holidays

- The Victorians used to go on holiday to Brighton and Worthing.
- The Victorians did not think you should show your arms and legs at the seaside, so they wore lots of clothes to the beach and in the water.
- Some beaches were divided into men's and boys' areas and women's and girls' areas.
- The Victorians used bathing machines to get to the water.
- The Victorians liked to walk up and down promenades.
- The Victorians liked to watch Punch and Judy shows.
- The Victorians used to go on donkey rides on the beach.
- The Victorians travelled by trains and designed beautiful railway stations like Bognor Regis and Brighton.
- The Victorians did not believe in sunbathing –they liked sea bathing.

What I will know by the end of the unit

- Life was slightly different when my parents were little.
- Life was very different when my grandparents were little.
- Life was extremely different in Victorian times.
- The Victorians lived in Britain over 100 years ago.
- The Victorians lived before my grandparents were born.
- The Victorians dressed and behaved differently from us.
- People go on holiday to the seaside.
- Victorians used to go on holiday to the seaside.

Historical Skills

Similarity and Difference

How clothes have changed since parents, grandparents and Victorian times.

The differences between holidays in Victorian times different from holidays today

Similarities and differences between holidays now and in the past
Use Victorian photographs to identify similarities and differences

Chronological Understanding

Put photographs on a timeline to show holidays as they change through time

Interpretation

Look at photographs and other sources and describe what they tell us about people in the past.

Timeline

Victorian Times

When your grandparents were little

When your parents were little

Your childhood

